"MOMENTS OF MARY" STUDY SERIES: "MARY THROUGH THE EYES OF THE MYSTICS"

The Women of Grace Moments with Mary Study Series explores the Blessed Virgin Mary's role in salvation history and her maternal guidance in leading us toward a deepening relationship with her Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

This study dives into the mystical reality of our Blessed Mother more intimately through study and prayer. This powerful five-week study includes: weekly teaching videos by Johnnette and Colin Donovan, daily meditations for reflection with accompanying Daily Reflection videos by Johnnette, supplemental articles that further explore the study theme and grace, a study guide to record your study journey and access to all study-specific videos.

Through expert teaching and commentary, the quotes of the saints, documents of the Church, and Scripture passages, the Moments with Mary Study Series encourages women to seek the action of the Holy Spirit in their lives and to act upon the promptings they receive. In this way, women will "aid humanity in not falling", and be a sign of God's action in our day.

Study begins at St. Joan of Arc Parish in Hershey, Saturday, September 13 from 10:00 am to Noon in the "old" school building, Room 310. Other Study dates are September 20, 27, October 11, and 25. Study Guide cost is $30.

For more information, please contact Chris Arnold, Regional Coordinator, at carnold@womenofgrace.com or call (717) 379-6041 (leave message).

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The following is an excerpt from Treatise 4 "On the Lord's Prayer" by St. Cyprian of Carthage, bishop and martyr (Nn. 13-15: CSEL 3, 275-278)

Your kingdom come. Your will be done.

The prayer continues: Your kingdom come [Matthew 6:9]. We pray that God's kingdom will become present for us in the same way that we ask for his name to be hallowed among us. For when does God not reign, when could there be in him a beginning of what always was and what will never cease to be? What we pray for is that the kingdom promised to us by God will come, the kingdom won by Christ's blood and passion. Then we who formerly were slaves in this world will reign from now on under the dominion of Christ, in accordance with his promise: Come, O blessed of my Father, receive the kingdom which was prepared for you from the foundation of the world [Matthew 25:34].

However, my dear friends, it could also be that the kingdom of God whose coming we daily wish for is his himself, since it is his coming that we long for. He is our resurrection since we rise again in him; so too he can be thought of as the kingdom of God because we are to reign in him. And it is good that we pray for God's kingdom; for though it is a heavenly kingdom, it is also an earthly one. But those who have already renounced the world are [greater than its honors and its kingdom].

After this we add: Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven [Matthew 6:9]; we pray not that God should do his will, but that we may carry out his will. How could anyone prevent the Lord from doing what he wills? But in our prayer we ask that God's will be done in us, because the devil throws up obstacles to prevent our mind and our conduct from obeying God in all things. So if his will is to be done in us we have need of his will, that is, his help and protection. No one can be strong by his own strength or secure save by God's mercy and forgiveness. Even the Lord, to show the weakness of the human nature which he bore, said: Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me, and their by way of giving example to his disciples that they should do God's will and not their own, he added: Nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will [Matthew 26:39].

All Christ did, all he taught, was the will of God. Humility in our daily lives, an unwavering faith, a moral sense of modesty in conversation, justice in acts, mere in deed, discipline, refusal to harm others, a readiness to suffer harm, peaceableness with our brothers, a wholehearted love of the Lord, loving in him what is of the Father, fearing him because he is God, preferring nothing to him who preferred nothing to us, clinging tenaciously to his love, standing by his cross with loyalty and courage whenever there is any conflict involving his honor and his name, manifesting in our speech the constancy of our profession and under torture confidence for the fight, and in dying the endurance for which we will be crowned - this is what it means to wish to be coheir with Christ, to keep God's command; this is what it means to do the will of the Father.¹

Live for God.

Be transformed by His Grace.

Go and make disciples.

Peace in Christ, Father Michael
